Mock allotment ledger

Made for this exhibition · Reconstruction

A ledger where tracts are listed, allotted, or stamped ‘surplus’.

“SURPLUS” rubber stamp

Prop made for this exhibition

The administrative word that turned leftover tribal territory into public land for sale. Visitors may stamp the ledger.

Surveyor’s chain

Representative object

A 66-foot chain of the kind used to split ancestral territory into rectangular, saleable parcels.